Welcome to Pudding Pie Cookery School!

I cannot believe another year is almost over! 2009 has flown by for us at Pudding Pie Cookery School. We have seen the business grow massively with contracts from Cherwell District Council and lots of local clubs and schools. Looking into 2010, we have many plans to grow the services we can offer our customers; these will be rolled out as soon as possible. The Hen & Stag Cookery Parties are a new venture for us that's proved there is a market for this type of event.

Finally with Christmas approaching fast, why not treat a friend or loved one or child to a unique present this year and buy a Cookery School Voucher. These can be used for any of our services from a Dinner Party to a Buffet.

Cookery Gift Vouchers

With Christmas fast approaching, you may be stuck for present ideas. How about a Pudding Pie Cookery School Gift Voucher. These can be used for any of our services from a Dinner Party to a Cookery Lesson in our kitchen or customers home. We have Vouchers from £50, so why not give something different this year!
